Dear Business Partners,

Thank you for joining the St. Augustine & St. Johns County Board of REALTORS®. We are certain you will find membership worthwhile. The opportunities to network and meet local REALTORS® and other business partners will make your membership more than pay for itself.

In addition to networking with the membership, you will have the opportunity to be featured in our BOR Forward monthly newsletter. Send a ½ page article with photos to mls@stjohnsrealtors.org enabling our communications staff member to place your information in the newsletter. To view a calendar of events to participate in go to <http://staugustineandstjohnsbor.com> click on calendar and see where you would like to get the most exposure to the membership and sign up!

We have many committees that also might be of great interest. The committees that are available are:

Business Partners- Business partners and REALTORS® together create the fun events throughout the year.

RPAC- REALTOR® political action committee is for both the Business Partners and REALTORS®. Get involved with local, state and national affairs of property rights, taxes, construction, affordable housing, and once a year visit Tallahassee with the annual bust trip to the Capital.

Education- Provide members with educational opportunities throughout the year. Education classes are offered not only for license renewal, but also to improve professionalism and productivity of all members in the real estate profession.

Public Relations- develop and promote projects that enhance the image of the REALTOR® organization, individual members, and the community it serves and to work directly with the Association Executive in promoting the Board of REALTORS® and the annual projects to and for our community.

Technology- To inform Board members of new technology, products, and advances that can increase sales, marketing, and management.
